I NEVER TALK.

I hate the petty scandals
Always flying to and fro,
Stringing like mosquitoes;
I never talk, oh, no!
Now there's preity Nettte Miller—
I've heard her cousin say
That her pink and white complexion
Could all be washed away,
But I don't believe a word of it
She's like the lilies feir,
Though she shouldn't black hereyebrows
And wear two shades of hair,
I don't wondor that the horrid men
Are always poking fon
At their better-halves, for, gracious me
How woman's tongues do rim!
Only an hour ago I heard
That Mrs. Wm. Lee
Is seen on Broadway every day
With handsome Dr. D.
I don't believe a word of it;
What would his patients do
If he spent every day with her,
And every eventing too!
And then young Jones, they say he drinks,
And don't support his wife;
I never saw him drunk but ten
O'r twelve times in my life;
And I have knewn the m quite a monthYes, one month and a day—
And as for her, she dersees well,
Somebody has to pay.
Dear me, dear me, this world is queer!
How can folks gossip se?
It's wrong, unkind, unchristianlike.
I never talk, oh, me! THE PROPRIETORS OF THIS Esting House, well and favorably known in Idaho for their long experience and attention to the wants of the public, have established themselves in New and Commodious Building adjoining D. C. Clark & Bros'. Store on Main Street,
Where they are prepared to nerve customers
